

THE LANGUAGE TREE

STUDENT NEWSPAPER

ISSUE 006

GOLD COAST, HONG KONG

JUNE 2016

Happy
Father's Day!

We Love You
Daddy!

THE LANGUAGE TREE

STUDENT NEWSPAPER

ISSUE 006

GOLD COAST, HONG KONG

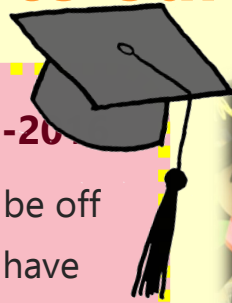

JUNE 2016

Congratulations to our little grad-

Seedlings Programme 2015-2016

Many of our Seedlings students will be off to kindergartens after summer. We have witnessed their growth over the past year and we are really impressed by their tremendous achievements in acquiring lan-

THE LANGUAGE TREE

STUDENT NEWSPAPER

ISSUE 006

GOLD COAST, HONG KONG

JUNE 2016

Snapshots

Last call for summer classes!

Limited quotas still available. Please contact

This month our Putonghua classes focused on colours and festivals. Our students' articulation, listening and speaking skills had been greatly enhanced through poem reciting and storytelling activities. Basic Putonghua Initials and Finals were also introduced to the young learners. Most of the students demonstrate

THE LANGUAGE TREE

STUDENT NEWSPAPER

ISSUE 006

GOLD COAST, HONG KONG

JUNE 2016

We had a new teacher start this month all the way from New Zealand. Let us introduce Mr

Hello to all the parents and children of the Language Tree family. My name is John Luke and Yes, I am all the way from New Zealand and NO, I'm not Australian!

I have been living in Hong Kong now for over six years with my lovely wife (a local girl) and enjoy calling this place my second home. I started my career in the hospitality business with a passion for cooking; I quickly rose through the ranks and found I needed another challenge. My colleagues said I had a knack for talking and helping others and should try teaching and training. From that day forth I've never looked back.

I have been teaching in Hong Kong for many years now, not just children but adults as well. They are two very different styles and approaches which I feel have shaped my style of teaching. I also have a nine month old son, helping me to relate to all the par-

Contact Us

Language Tree Education Centre (Gold Coast Piazza)

Address:

S20, 1/F Gold Coast Piazza, Tuen Mun

香港新界屯門青山公路1號 黃金海岸商場 1樓 20號

Tel: 2146 3168/21463238

